

Perspective:

The Chart Drawing application will be a standalone application. No internet connection will need to run this application. To draw the chart we have to select the chart type from the list and after giving the input value it will draw chart.

Functionality:

Functionality of the application is to draw appropriate chart according to users requirement.

Users and Characteristics:

The user of the system will be a single person want to draw chart. Only one person will use application at a time.

Environment:

A device having operating system android 2.2 or higher is required. Screen resolution greater than 240*320.

User Documentation:

The user manuals and necessary documentation will be provided along with the application to the end user.